

An adult woman with short reddish-brown hair, wearing an orange short-sleeved shirt and red pants, is kneeling on the left side of the blanket. She is looking down at the children and the craft materials. She has a red beaded bracelet on her left wrist and is holding a pink bag.

Two young girls are sitting in the center of the group. The girl in the foreground is wearing a pink shirt and has her hair in pigtails with pink bows. The girl behind her is wearing a light purple shirt. Both are focused on their craft projects.

Two more children are sitting on the right side of the blanket. One is a boy in a yellow shirt, and the other is a girl in a white t-shirt. They are also engaged in the activity, with the girl in white holding a small container of beads.

Another child, wearing a white t-shirt and dark pants, is sitting on the far right edge of the blanket, partially visible. She is also working on her craft project.

The central area of the plaid blanket is covered with craft materials, including colorful sticks (yellow, blue, green) and beads. Several instructional diagrams are laid out, showing how to assemble the structures. One diagram is titled "The Giraffe" and another "The Elephant".

In the background, there is a table with various supplies, including a water bottle, a box, and some colorful decorations. A yellow balloon is also visible in the upper right corner.
